Room Rental Agreement - Terms & Conditions

The Orangeville Public Library will rent rooms only to individuals or groups who comply with the room rental policy and this agreement.

This Agreement between (hereinafter referred to as renter) and the Orangeville Public Library (hereinafter referred to as library) defines the terms and conditions for all room rentals.

The following terms and conditions apply to all room rentals:

1. Reservations are accepted on a first come, first-serve basis, no more than 90 days in advance.
2. The rooms are available for use only during open hours of operation. Set up and clean-up are the renter’s responsibility and must be completed during the rental period.
3. The room rental agreement form must be completed and signed a minimum of 72 hours in advance of the event. Some exceptions may apply.
4. Payment for the room rentals is accepted in cash, cheque or by debit, and are due prior to the date/time of rental, unless other arrangements have been made with the Administrative Assistant. Rental fees are non-refundable and subject to change.
5. NSF and/or returned cheques are subject to a $25 administration fee.
6. Applications will be considered for both occasional and periodic use if such use does not restrict the freedom of the library in planning and scheduling its own activities.
7. A minimum of forty-eight (48) hour notice is necessary for cancellation of a booking, or a refund will not be possible, and the rental fee will be charged. To cancel a room reservation, call 519-941-0610, extension 5221 or infolibrary@orangeville.ca
8. An event reservation, though confirmed, may be cancelled by the library due to the booking of a library/Town of Orangeville event, elections, weather, and natural disasters. A full refund will be made in such circumstances.
9. Users under twenty-one years of age must have the room rental agreement signed by a sponsoring adult, who must be present for the meeting and accept responsibility for the minor participants, and any damage done to the room.
10. The renter is responsible for arranging furnishings (tables and chairs) according to their requirements and returning the room to its original configuration. Failure to do so may result in additional fees for which the renter will be held responsible.
11. Renter and renter’s guests must abide by the Rzone Policy.
12. The meeting room must be left in proper order with all paper, trash, etc. disposed of in trash receptacles. A clean up fee will be charged if warranted, as assessed by the Library CEO.
13. The renter is responsible for all damage to the facilities and/or contents and fixtures. All damage must be reported to library staff immediately. Renter is expected to cover the cost of all repairs, replacement and extra cleaning required as a result of the rental.

14. It is understood, the Orangeville Public Library is in no way responsible for any personal injuries, property damages, lost or stolen items or other liabilities that may be incurred during use of their facility. Renter and their guests agree to release indemnity and hold the Orangeville Public Library harmless of any such damages.
15. Granting permission to use library meeting room does not constitute an endorsement by the library of any individual group or its beliefs/practices.
16. Food and non-alcoholic beverages may be served in the meeting room. Limited access to kitchen sink may be available if requested at time of booking. Food orders, deliveries and payment are the sole responsibility of the renter. Catered events may be arranged by the renter with prior consent of the Library CEO.
17. Alcoholic beverages and smoking are strictly prohibited.
18. Use of lighted candles, open flames, and catalytic burners is strictly prohibited.
19. The Orangeville Public Library supports a scent-free environment. Invitations, advertisement, and promotional material created and/or published by renter of events are requested to include the statement: The Orangeville Public Library supports a scent-free environment. Please refrain from use of scented products on library property.
20. The library reserves the right to have a member of its staff present at each scheduled event.
21. The renter shall confine all activities, equipment, and promotional materials to within the room. On the day of the event, notices or flyers announcing the users' event, or use of the room, may be placed on the door of the room.
22. The room walls shall be kept free of materials. Users may not post, tack, tape, or otherwise affix anything to the walls.
23. The library does not supply technical support for the equipment supplied by the library or the renter.
24. Messages and phone calls cannot be relayed by library staff to people attending meetings, except in emergencies.
25. Renter and guests must leave the premises on time and prior to the closing of the library. Failure to do so may result in additional fees for which the renter will be held responsible.
